Qualifying Conditions

Old-age pension: Age 62 and 6 months (men) or age 56 (women; rising to age 56 and 4 months in 2009). The insured must have a minimum of 15 years of contributions.

The full pensionable age is increasing gradually to age 63 with 40 years of contributions (men) in 2009 or to age 61 with 38 years of contributions (women) by 2023.

Retirement from insured employment is necessary.

Early pension: There is no early pension.

Deferred pension: A deferred pension is possible.

The pension is payable abroad under reciprocal agreement.

State pension (social assistance): Age 65 and does not qualify for a social insurance pension or a pension provided by another country. The beneficiary must have resided permanently in Slovenia for at least 30 years between ages 15 and 65 and satisfy a means test.

Means test: The insured's monthly earnings and the value of his or her taxable property must not exceed specified amounts.

Disability pension: Paid for the loss of all working capacity (total disability) or a greatly reduced capacity for the usual or similar work (partial disability). The insured must have at least 3 months of coverage if younger than age 20; have coverage in at least 1/4 of the total possible number of years of coverage if younger than age 30, including 1/3 of the years after age 20.

The disability is assessed and reviewed by a board of medical examiners of the Institute for Pension and Invalidity Insurance of Slovenia.

The disability pension is payable abroad under reciprocal agreement.

Constant-attendance allowance: The allowance is paid to persons residing permanently in Slovenia who need the constant attendance of another person.

Survivor pension: The deceased had at least 5 years of coverage or received or qualified to receive the old-age pension or disability pension.

Eligible survivors are a widow(er) older than age 53; children younger than age 15 (age 26 if a student); a dependent mother older than age 54 or disabled; a dependent father older than age 58 or disabled; and dependent grandchildren, brothers, and sisters.

The survivor pension is payable abroad under reciprocal agreement.

Old-Age Benefits

Old-age benefit: If the insured has at least 15 years of coverage before 2000, the monthly pension is equal to 35% (men) or 40% (women) of the insured's average adjusted earnings during the best 18 consecutive years since 1970, plus 2% of average adjusted earnings for each additional year of coverage before 2000 (3% for women) up to a maximum of 20 years, and 1.5% of average adjusted earnings for each year of coverage from 2000.

The insured's earnings for pension calculation purposes are adjusted according to changes in average wages and pensions.

The minimum old-age pension is equal to 35% of the minimum pension basis. The minimum pension basis is €476.54 a month.

The maximum old-age pension varies according to the length of the qualifying period up to a maximum of four times the minimum pension basis. The minimum pension basis is €476.54 a month.

Early pension: There is no early pension.

Deferred pension: The pension is increased by 0.3% for each month of coverage between ages 63 and 64 (men) or between ages 61 and 62 (women), by 0.2% for each month of coverage between ages 64 and 65 (men) or between ages 62 and 63 (women), and by 0.1% for each month of coverage between ages 65 and 66 (men) or between ages 63 and 64 (women). The maximum increase is 7.2%.

Pension support (means-tested): Low-income pensioners may receive a supplement to the old-age pension equal to 60% of the difference between the supplementary rights assessment basis and the old-age pension payable with 15 years of contributions, plus 2% of the difference for each additional year of contributions, up to a maximum of 100% of the difference.

The supplementary rights assessment basis is €382.79 a month.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted twice a year according to changes in the average wage.

State pension (social assistance): €158.69 a month is paid.

Benefit adjustment: The state pension is adjusted according to changes in the minimum pension basis.

Permanent Disability Benefits

Disability pension: The pension is calculated as a percentage of the minimum pension basis (€476.54 a month), according to the length of the coverage period.

If the insured has at least 15 years of coverage before 2000, the monthly pension is equal to 35% (men) or 40% (women) of the insured's average adjusted earnings, plus 2% of average adjusted earnings for each additional year of coverage before 2000 (3% for women) up to 20 years, and 1.5% of average adjusted earnings for each year from 2000.

The coverage period for pension calculation purposes includes 2/3 of the period between the date the disability began and age 58 (men and women) and 1/2 of the period between ages 58 and 63 (men) or ages 58 and 61 (women).

The minimum monthly pension for a disability that began before age 63 (men) or age 61 (women) is 45% (men) or 48% (women) of the minimum pension basis. The minimum monthly pension for a disability that began when aged 63 or older (men) or aged 61 or older (women) is 35% of the pension basis (men and women).

The maximum monthly pension varies according to the length of the insurance coverage period, up to four times the minimum pension basis.

The minimum pension basis is €476.54 a month.

Partial disability: The pension ranges from 12.5% to 50% of the disability pension according to the number of hours worked per day. The partial pension may be increased up to 40% but must not be greater than 80% of the disability pension the insured person would have been entitled to when the disability began.

Disability pensions and partial disability pensions are paid monthly.

Constant-attendance allowance: The allowance is 100%, 70%, or 50% of the supplementary rights assessment basis (€382.79 a month), according to the degree of disability and the assessed need for constant attendance.

Pension support (means-tested): Low-income disability pensioners receiving a partial disability pension may receive a supplement equal to 70% of the difference between the supplementary rights assessment basis and the disability pension, plus 2% of the difference for each additional year of contributions, up to a maximum of 100% of the difference.

The supplementary rights assessment basis is €382.79 a month.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted twice a year according to changes in the average wage.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor pension: The monthly pension for one survivor is equal to 70% of the pension paid or payable to the deceased; 80% for two survivors; 90% for three survivors; or 100% for four or more survivors.

The pension ceases if the surviving spouse remarries before age 58 (widower) or age 55 and 4 months (widow), except if assessed as totally incapable of work.

Child's supplement: Paid if average per capita family income does not exceed a state-determined income limit.

Pension support (means-tested): Low-income pensioners may receive a supplement that varies according to the number of family members entitled to the pension. The allowance is equal to at least 70% of the difference between the supplementary rights assessment basis and the survivor pension for one survivor up to a maximum 100% of the difference for four or more survivors.

The supplementary rights assessment basis is €382.79 a month.

Benefit adjustment: Benefits are adjusted twice a year according to changes in the national average monthly wage.

Death benefit: Dependent family members may receive a monthly benefit equal to 25% of the national average monthly wage, depending on the deceased's average earnings in the last year.

The national average monthly wage is based on wages from January to September in the last calendar year before the insured's death.

The national average monthly wage is €1,303.92 (October 2007).

Funeral allowance: The allowance is paid to the person who paid for the insured's funeral and varies between zero and 60% of the national average monthly wage, depending on the deceased's average earnings in the last year.

The national average monthly wage is €1,303.92 (October 2007).
