Qualifying Conditions

Parenting payment (means tested): Paid to the single principle care provider to a child younger than age 8 if single, age 6 if with a partner. Only one parent can receive the payment. Must reside permanently in Australia.

Family tax benefit, Parts A and B: Paid to families with dependent children (up to age 18 if a full-time student). Must provide at least 35% of the dependent child's care. For Part A, the children must be fully immunized at ages 1, 2, and 5 and have a health exam at age 4.

Part A: The maximum family tax benefit rate is paid if annual family income is A$50,151 or less. Families receive some benefit for annual family income up to A$101,787 with one dependent child younger than age 18 (the income ceiling is raised for each additional dependent child younger than age 18).

Large family supplement: Paid for families with three or more children.

Multiple birth allowance: Paid for the birth of three or more children at one time. The allowance is paid until the children are age 16 (end of the calendar year in which they are age 18 if at least three children are full-time students).

Newborn upfront payment and newborn supplement: Paid to parents with a child born on or after March 1, 2014, eligible for family tax benefit Part A at a rate greater than 0; the child must be younger than age 1.

Rent assistance: Paid to people paying private rent and receiving more than the family tax benefit base rate.

Part B: The family tax benefit provides extra assistance for single parent families or two parent families where one parent is on a low income or not in paid employment. A higher rate is paid to families caring for children younger than age 5. The maximum rate is paid if the secondary earner's annual income is not greater than A$5,329. Single parents with annual earnings above A$150,000 are ineligible. Couples with a primary earner annual income of A$150,000 or less receive some benefits if the secondary earner's annual income is less than A$27,065 and the youngest child is younger than age 5 or less than A$21,043 and the youngest child is aged 5 to 18.

Double orphan pension: Paid to a child younger than age 16 (aged 16 to 21 if a full-time student and not receiving the youth allowance) if both parents are deceased (or one parent is deceased and the other is in prison, a hospital or an institution on a long-term basis, or whose whereabouts are unknown) or for refugee children under certain circumstances. The pension is not income tested.

Paid parental leave (dad and partner pay): Paid to fathers or partners of a primary caregiver caring for a newborn child or recently adopted child, who meet work and residency tests. Must be on unpaid leave or not working during the father and partner pay period.

Child care benefit: May be paid to families whose children have been immunized (or are exempt from immunization) and use an approved or registered child care provider.

Child care rebate: Paid to families with a child in approved child care who meet the child care benefit requirements (no income test).

Health care card: Provided to income support recipients and families receiving the maximum family tax benefit (Part A) or who meet an income test on average gross weekly income in the eight weeks immediately before the claim is made.

Income test: The income test is based on annual adjusted taxable income and maintenance (child support) income received.

Family Allowance Benefits

Parenting payment (means tested): Up to A$465.50 is paid every two weeks for parents living as a couple; A$720.30 for a single parent. Couples separated by illness, respite care, or prison can receive up to A$557.90 every two weeks (September 2014).

Family tax benefit, Part A: The minimum and maximum rates of payment vary according to family income and the age of the dependent child.

The base rate for each two-week period for a child younger than age 18 and in full-time study is A$56.70 before the income test is applied.

The maximum rate for each two-week period for a child younger than age 13 is A$176.82; A$230.02 if aged 13 to 19 and in secondary school. (An annual supplement of A$726.35 for each eligible child is also paid as a lump sum at the end of the financial year.) (September 2014).

Large family supplement: A$12.32 is paid every two weeks for the third and each subsequent child.

Multiple birth allowance: A$147.84 is paid every two weeks for triplets; A$196.84 for quadruplets or more.
